

RULE OF FILIPINOS.

Subject of Animated Discussion in the Senate.

VARIOUS RESOLUTIONS UP.

Pettigrew's Charges Against the Administration and Otis.

Washington, Jan. 11.—In the senate Spooner, of Wisconsin, introduced a bill providing that when the Philippine insurrection is suppressed, the government of the islands be vested in such person or persons as the president may direct, pending more definite action by congress. Pettigrew's resolution regarding the attempt to open negotiations with the Filipinos was taken up. Hoar offered a similar resolution of broader scope. Lodge offered a further amendment to include any information of plans of the Filipinos touching the uprising in Manila. Pettigrew insisted on having his resolution acted on separately.

Pettigrew charged the administration with suppression of facts about the doings in the Philippines for political purposes; that Otis had altered the president's proclamation; that he defrauded the Filipinos and the administration humbugged the American people.

Pettigrew charged that the United States commenced the war first by proclamation by the president in December, 1898, and afterward by firing the first shot and killing the first man. It was finally decided that all the resolutions remain on the table for further discussion.

ROCKEFELLER ON COMBINATIONS.

Says the Purchaser Get All the Advantage of Rebates to the Railroads. Washington, Jan. 11.—The industrial commission yesterday received from John D. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil company, replies to questions sent him by the commission. The company received rebates from railroads prior to 1880, but received no special advantage for which it did not give full compensation. No profits came from such rebates, as whatever advantage was received in this way was deducted from the price of oil. The company never received any income from any railroad for oil shipped over its line.

The enterprise had been successful because of the cheapness of its commodity. Combinations, he says, are absolutely necessary in order to carry on a large business. He recommends federal legislation under which corporations may be created and regulated, and if that is not possible to have uniform state legislation encouraging combinations, and permitting state supervision which will not hamper, but suffice to prevent frauds.

Congress in Brief.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The senate today devoted its time to enacting the late Vice President Hobart, and many eloquent speeches were made. Hale introduced a resolution which assumed that Great Britain had acted unjustly in her recent seizures of American products on the African coast and asked for information, but Lodge objected and it went over. But he introduced a resolution for government control of the issue of money and of railway, telegraph and telephone lines. Allen introduced a bill to give every citizen a pension on land and sea a pension of $10 a month.

The house did little business, putting in the session in enology of the late Representative Greene, of Nebraska. Nevada, Nevada, introduced a resolution which was adopted authorizing a special committee to investigate and report whether it is only in the actual states that duties, etc., must be uniform, or whether this law includes territories. The speaker appointed Dalzell, Grosvenor, Hopkins, Richardson and Newlands. A resolution was adopted calling for a lot of information about oleomargarine. Adjourned to Friday.

MILLER KEEPS THE HOUSE.

End of Novel Fight Between Two Towns in South Dakota.

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 11.—The supreme court yesterday sustained the lower court in the somewhat sensational case of the town of St. Lawrence against the Methodist church at Miller, on the question of removing a parsonage from former to the latter place. After having forcibly sought to prevent the removal the case was taken into the courts.

WAS THE WAGES OF SIN.

The Tragedy in a Chicago Rooming House Identified as Published.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—The mystery surrounding the murder and suicide of a man and woman in a West Madison street lodging house on Monday has been cleared by the information that the bodies are those of Jack Furell and Mrs. Margaret Hickey, the former of Jonesboro and the latter of Marion, Ind. Furell left a wife and Mrs. Hickey a husband. The couple left Jonesboro together last July.

Lieutenant Howard's theory that the woman did the shooting looks plausible in the light of reports from Marion. Furell had been writing to his wife and supplying her with money. The police suggest that jealousy may have drawn the woman to murder and suicide, or that they agreed to die together.

"BOBS" AT CAPE TOWN

New Commander of the British in South Africa Arrives on the Ground.

INDICATIONS OF EARLY FIGHTING

Stretchers Bearers Leave Durban for the Front—No Further Attack on Lady Smith Except at Long Range—Boer Report of Losses in the Fighting Last Saturday—Cape Colony Dutch Very Enthusiastic Over Reports of Boer Successes.

London, Jan. 11.—An uncorroborated rumor is current that a battle is progressing at Tugela river.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—The Tribune's London special quotes an official of the war office as authority for the statement that Gen. Methuen is crazy as the result of the defeat at Modder river, and will be relieved of command.

London, Jan. 11.—Officials of the war office deny the report published in the United States that Gen. Methuen has been recalled.

London, Jan. 11.—Kafir securities were week owing to the rumor from Paris that Buller had met another defeat.

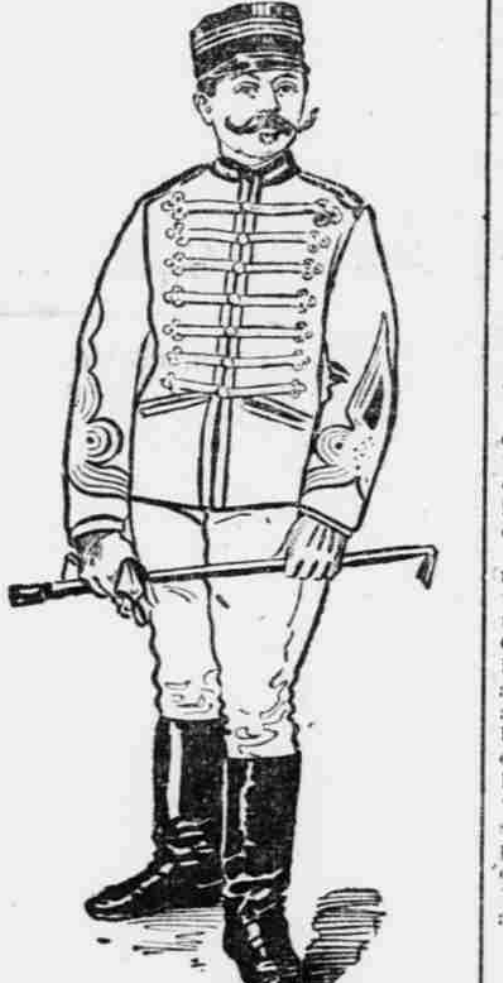

London, Jan. 11.—General Lord Roberts, the new commander of the British forces in South Africa, and his chief-of-staff, General Lord Kitchener, have arrived at Cape Town.

London, Jan. 11.—The Durban correspondent of The Standard, telegraphing Tuesday, says that 1,200 Indian stretcher-bearers started for the front the previous night, and that their departure was regarded in Durban as indicative of a renewal of the fighting.

London, Jan. 11.—A dispatch to The Daily Telegraph, dated Monday, Jan. 8, at noon, from Free Camp, says: "Firing from the Boer positions around Ladysmith began early today. It still continues, but the cannonading is light and irregular."

Buller's Demonstration Had Effect.

London, Jan. 11.—The Daily Mail has the following dispatch, dated Jan. 8, from Free Camp: "With the exception of the usual shelling of the Boer positions by the naval guns, British forces remain inactive. Eight Boer camps were seen today by a patrol along the Tugela in a westerly direction. All were quiet. Natives say that when the British reconnoitered near Colenso on Saturday the Boers hurried from Springfield. This supports the belief that Colenso was weakened to attack Ladysmith.

Boer Losses at Ladysmith. London, Jan. 11.—The war office announces that the list of British casualties at Ladysmith last Saturday has not yet been received. The following dispatch, dated at Free Camp, Jan. 10, noon, has been received from General Buller: "A Transvaal telegram gives the enemy's loss at Ladysmith on Saturday as 4 killed and 15 wounded, and this after—as is admitted—they had endured a withering fire from six masked batteries and been defeated at all points. Natives here assert that the Boer loss in one commando alone was 150 killed and wagonloads of wounded. The heaviest loss is said to have been among the Free Staters, who were forced by the Transvaalers into the most dangerous places."

Cape Colony Boers Are Rejoicing.

London, Jan. 11.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail, telegraphing Monday, says: "The Boer successes have been followed by a tremendous outburst of enthusiasm and Boer sympathy in the western part of the colony. Reports from Paarl say the whole district is made hideous at night by bands of young men parading in the villages and singing the Transvaal 'Volkslied,' while the children are everywhere practicing the national songs of the republics. The following are specimens of statements believed by the western Dutch: 'Buller and Rhodes are prisoners and 2,000 Boers secretly sailed and captured Cape Town.'"

THERE WAS A LACK OF HARMONY.

Between the Speaker and the Spoken to at This Society's Meeting.

New York, Jan. 11.—The annual reunion of the Albany Society of New York was held last night at Delmonico's. One hundred and fifty persons were present. Justice Woodward, of the supreme court, a particular friend of Governor Roosevelt, was down to respond to the toast "The Dutch in Albany and in South Africa." He devoted the first part of his address to the Dutch in Albany, and then turned to the Dutch in South Africa. As he continued the guests began to cough and laugh, and in other ways annoy the speaker. When he praised the Boers there was an open outbreak of hostilities. Justice Woodward was unable to proceed. One of the guests, who called himself "Yours truly, John Smith," jumped on his chair and shouted for order.

"The action of some of the members of this society and their treatment of Justice Woodward is utterly contemptible," he exclaimed. "Justice Woodward is here to speak at the invitation of the society, and his subject was agreed upon. If you are so much annoyed by his speech, not then you ought to be ashamed of yourselves." He sat down, his face flushed with anger, while a minority cheered and others hissed.

Justice Woodward made an ineffectual effort to proceed with his paper, but skipping whole pages he finally said: "I want to apologize to you for accepting your invitation to speak here tonight. It was understood that I was to be your guest, and to seat the subject I have talked on, and to read my address. I seem to have given you offense, and I sincerely apologize to you."

Then, drawing himself up to his full height he shouted: "In closing I want to propose a toast to that grand old statesman, the William the Silent of South Africa, one of the most impressive personalities alive, old Oom Paul Kruger." There were a few cheers, but Kruger's name was drowned in an avalanche of hisses. Somebody stole up to the orchestra loft and whispered instructions to the leader, and as Justice Woodward looked on to see the orchestra broke out with "Tommy Atkins." This made the sympathizers of the British cheer wildly while the pro-Boer element in turn did some hissing.

"SPECIAL" STORY FROM FREE.

Says Kruger Stirred Up Joubert and Suggested Sacrificing Free Staters.

London, Jan. 11.—The Standard has received the following, dated Jan. 8, from its special correspondent at Free Camp: "I heard on good authority that President Kruger sent word to the Boer headquarters asking why Ladysmith had not been attacked, and that the reply was that he had sent too many men." His answer to this question was the suggestion that the Free Staters might be put in the forefront. This hint was taken and the attack delivered.

President Kruger's advice was so far good that the Free Staters behaved better than the Transvaalers have done. At all events they managed to seize a hill. Later in the day the Transvaalers retired, before General White's counter attack amid the jeers of the Free Staters, who actually stuck to their position until they were bayoneted in the ditch. After this affair it is almost certain that the allies will quit the siege.

Rensburg, Cape Colony, Jan. 8.—It is reported here officially, with reference to the disaster to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment, that Lieutenant Colonel Watson made the recipient in close column to the top of the hill at midnight. He assembled the officers and was addressing them just at daybreak, when the enemy volleyed at a distance of thirty paces. The colonel, his adjutant, and two other officers were killed. The Suffolts, who had scarcely fired a shot, fled back to the pickets about 1,000 yards away, some "one having shouted 'Retire.' About 150, however, remained, lost heavily and finally surrendered.

French Reciprocity in Danger.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Private reports that reach here from Paris indicate that the reciprocity treaty between the United States and France is in a hazardous position with more than a possibility of defeat when it comes to the final vote in the French chambers. The ratification is equally doubtful in our senate.

Monkeys Fearless.

Until a monkey is beaten he has no fear. He would as soon attack a lion as a goat, and as long as he can look into your eyes he will not submit. He considers himself the master. Avert the head and he gives in. This is a recognized fact among animal trainers. The ringtail monkeys taken about by Italians are very gentle and are never whipped.

A Famous Eagle.

The eagle which originally decorated the stern of the famous schooner yacht America, which first won what is now known as the America's cup, is now the sign of the Royal Eagle hotel at Ryde, Isle of Wight, overlooking the scene of the vessel's triumph over her English competitors in 1851.

BLIZZARD IN NEW MEXICO.

Freezes Two Men to Death, and Many Cattle Are Frozen Still.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 11.—Advices from White Oaks, N. M., in the Sacramento mountains, 150 miles northeast of El Paso, say that section was swept by a blizzard Tuesday, the effects of which were disastrous. Many thousands of head of stock were frozen stiff and two men were caught in the snow storm and overcome.

One was dead when found, but the other revived and may recover. Al Haney was found dead near Nogal. He and a companion started to walk from Nogal to White Oaks, when they were overtaken by the storm.

Haney laid down in the deep snow by the roadside and perished. His companion succeeded in reaching a house a mile distant. A mail carrier was found near White Oaks in a dying condition, but he afterward slightly revived and may recover. The storm is said to be the worst ever experienced in that locality. Many other casualties are reported, but it is impossible to get details.

New York, Jan. 11.—The funeral of Rev. Dr. Edward McGlynn, in St. Stephen's church, was the occasion of a manifestation of popular affection such as is rarely witnessed. A crowd of several hundred people quickly gathered at the scene of the accident, and threats were made of lynching the crew of the car. A number of men attempted to drag the conductor and motorman from the car. The latter resisted, and with the aid of crews of other cars which had come up held the crowd at bay with revolvers.

Meantime a riot call was turned in and a patrol wagon full of policemen was dispatched to the scene. The mob was in an ugly temper and cries of "lynch them!" "hang them!" "shoot them!" were heard on all sides.

Not Too Indecent for Paris.

Paris, Jan. 11.—The manager and artist of La Caricature who published an indecent cartoon representing President Kruger having Queen Victoria over his knees in the act of spanking her, were tried yesterday on the charge of outraging public decency. That From England Relative to Flour Seizures.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The state department has just received from Choate the reply of the British government to the representation respecting the flour seizures. The communication is in cipher.
